LHU Non-Solicitation Policy

Solicitors, including students and employees assuming an entrepreneurial role, are prohibited from entering Lock Haven University grounds, including all buildings, facilities and residence halls, for the purpose of transacting business with members of the University community. This policy prohibits the solicitation for funds, sales, petitions, surveys, and the distribution of printed or free material, as well as the posting of advertisements on physical facilities and the placement of ad materials on cars parked in University parking lots. Exceptions to this policy include:

1. Providers of academic program materials, texts, or supplies who have explicit approval of the Provost;
2. Representatives of business and industry who have been invited or approved by the Director of Purchasing for the purpose of demonstrating a product or service;
3. Providers of student goods or services to be displayed in the residence halls, upon the invitation of the Vice President of Student Affairs or their designee;
4. Public appeals normally sustained by the State System of Higher Education, such as SECA and U.S. Savings Bond programs; and
5. Providers of student goods and services to be displayed in Parsons Union Building or Bentley, upon explicit invitation of the Vice President of Student Affairs or their designee.
6. Where Recognized Student Organizations have received prior written approval from the Student Activities Office.

**This policy has been in existence for many years prior to 2010 with an exact date unknown. We are using 2010 as a default original and/or update date.*
