Student Learning Outcomes

1.0- Professional Appropriate Writing - Students will demonstrate appropriate writing relevant to their intended profession.

2.0- Oral Presentation Competence - Students will demonstrate competence in oral communication.

3.0- Professional and Ethical Standards - Students will meet professional and ethical standards of communication.

4.0- Technology Competence - Students will communicate competently through the use of technology.

5.0- First Year Competencies - Communication students in COMM 119 First-year Seminar will meet standards for success in college.

6.0- General Education Outcome Assessment - Students will meet annual general education competency standards as provided by the Communication and Philosophy Department and in accordance with the University Assessment schedule.