LOCK HAVEN UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF NURSING
ASSOCIATE OF SCIENCE IN NURSING PROGRAM (ASN)

Admission Directions for Current LHU Students

This is an innovative, fast-paced, two-year program leading to an Associate of Science in Nursing degree. The Associate of Science in Nursing Program prepares nurses to manage direct care to patients with commonly recurring illnesses in acute, long-term and community/population health facilities. There is an optional externship program between the first and second years and a semester long preceptorship experience during the last semester. All graduates are eligible to take the licensing exam for registered nurses. The Associate of Science in Nursing Program at Lock Haven University is committed to excellence in nursing education and accredited by the Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN).

Requirements for the nursing applicant:

- SAT - score of 1000 or higher (not required, may submit if completed).
- GPA - 2.7 or higher.
- Algebra - earning a C or higher. From high school or college level.
- Biology with a lab - earning a C or higher. From high school or college level.
- Chemistry with a lab - earning a C or higher. From high school or college level.
- TEAS - composite score of 65% or higher.
